Hoke Smith Leads State Move For Party Regularity

Democratic War horse Calls Meeting To Organize Aggressive Campaign for Smith and Robinson.

Former United States Senator Hoke Smith, Wednesday issued a ringing call to democrats of Georgia to meet in Atlanta July 27 and form a vigorous organization to work for election of Governor Al Smith and United States Senator Joseph T. Robinson, national democratic nominees.

Asserting his steadfast loyalty to the democratic party for more than 50 years, Former Senator Smith declared that a month has elapsed since the Houston convention and that the constituted democratic authorities have taken no steps toward the organization of a campaign for the nominees of the party, although a widespread campaign already exists against the nominees.

"I am not and never have been a fifty-fifty democrat," Senator Smith said. "I am not one half democrat and one half republican."

The meeting is called for 8 o'clock on the night of July 27 at the Foresth theater.

Senator Smith for a generation has taken a leading part in the affairs of the democratic party both in the state and nationally. He was elected governor of the state on two occasions. Later he was named United States senator. Prior to his service in the state he served in the cabinet of President Grover Cleveland holding the post of secretary of the interior. After his retirement from the senate he returned to Atlanta where he opened law offices. He virtually had retired from active public life until his decision announced Wednesday to launch a fight "to preserve the integrity of the democratic party in Georgia."

The call issued by Senator Smith
is as follows:

To the Democracy of Georgia:
Almost a month has elapsed since the democratic convention at Houston, and yet the constituted authorities of the democratic party of Georgia have taken no steps toward the organization of a campaign for the democratic nominees, although an aggressive and widespread campaign already has been inaugurated against the nominees.

I am not and never have been a fifty-fifty democrat. I am not one-half democrat and one-half republican. For fifty years I have had some part in fighting the battles of the democratic party in Georgia and in the nation. My service in the party goes back to the days when democrats were obliged to arm themselves to reach the ballot box. White supremacy was then re-established by the democratic party in the face of federal bayonets, and through all the years has been main-

GOLFERS ORGANIZE
FOR IMPROVEMENT OF CITY COURSES

Trammell Scott Elected President; Organization
Urges 18-Hole Course at White Park.

Dub and divot-digger, tournament player and stylist, 150 public links golfers of the city, meeting Wednesday night at the Y. M. C. A., banded together for the furtherance of municipal golf in Atlanta.

The organization, headed by Major Trammell Scott, prominent Atlanta sportsman, is to be known as the Municipal Golfers' Association of Atlanta.

A petition to Mayor Ragsdale and city council was read to the organization and received a rousing indorsement. The petition, which will be presented at an early date, set forth the "deplorable condition" of the only two courses in Atlanta available to public links players and stressed the need of at least one other course—one of 18 holes—to relieve congestion at the Piedmont park and James L.
Key links, both nine-hole courses and at present unable to care for the large crowds of golfers seeking to play.

Seek 18-Hole Course.

Plans were recently drawn up for an 18-hole course on Cascade avenue to be known as the John A. Wolfe course. Later, it was set forth in the petition, the plans were altered to restrict the length to nine holes and utilize the rest of the ground for a playground.

The petition requested that the full 18-hole course be built as originally planned. It also asked that sorely needed improvement work get under way immediately at Piedmont park and the Key course.

Golfers stated that in places the grass on the fairways at Piedmont was ankle deep, that in other places the fairways were rocky, rough and otherwise not conducive to good play.

Condition of Greens.

The storm of criticism, however, centered around the condition of the greens on both courses. It was said that at Piedmont, with the summer season half gone, the greens were in the "worst possible shape" and that sufficient labor was not provided to keep the courses in repair.

The petition further requested that the city employ at once a man experienced in construction and maintenance of golf courses.

Christiansen's Liability.

The only remaining question is whether Christiansen is liable under coast guard articles of war or American criminal law for prosecution on allegations of complicity in the theft of some of the seized liquor, a charge on which Nesle was convicted and for which he served time in the Bahamas.

The British authorities have submitted evidence as to the share they charge Christiansen had in that transaction and this information has been handed over by the state department both to the department of justice and the treasury department.

Christiansen, commanding a coast guard patrol vessel, seized the two rum-laden ships off the Bahamas last September. There is an unsettled dispute as to whether the actual seizure was made within British territorial waters, Christiansen contending he overhauled and took possession of the two ships five miles off shore in the open sea. The point proved to be of no importance, however, as Christiansen subsequently took the captured ships into British waters, sending his prisoners and the seized cargoes at Gun Cay, Bahamas, where they spent the night, being transferred to another vessel the following day and sent back to the United States.

Reason for Apology.

It is this entry of British jurisdiction, admittedly in defiance of all international law and custom, which prompted the American apology and

Thousands Swear
Oath To Revenge
Death of Obregon

Thousands Pledge Dead
Leader To Punish His Slayers as Train Takes Body Back to Sonora.

Mexico City, July 18.—(P)—The body of General Alvaro Obregon, president-elect of Mexico, was tonight enroute to his home in Sonora. His death left the capital in mourning and denouncing the assassin who fired bullets from an automatic pistol while his victim was partaking of a luncheon given in celebration of his being chosen for the office of chief executive.

Just before the train pulled out of the station here this afternoon, thousands of followers of the Obregon policies raised their right hands and took a solemn oath to sustain his principles and to see that punishment is visited upon those responsible for his death. This was done at the instance of a member of congress who, as the oath was given, turned to President Calles, standing nearby, and said:

"Justice Demanded."

"We demand of you justice by the punishment of those who were guilty of murdering Obregon."

President Calles and other leaders of the republic walked behind the hearse with bared heads in the funeral procession from the national palace to the station. There they acted as pillholders and carried the coffin to the train. Vast throngs filled the two and a half miles of streets through which the cortege wound. It was marked by military escort and accompanied by the droning of airplanes
flying over the route.

the train. Vast throngs filled the two and a half miles of streets through

marked by military escort and accompanied by the droning of airplanes
flying over the route.

The president boarded the funeral train intending to travel to a station about 12 miles from the capital and then return to this city by automobile to prosecute the search for motives and possible backers of the assassin.

Numerous other prominent members of the government were on the train, as well as General Obregon's son and sister, the only members of his immediate family who were in Mexico City.

The entire staff of the constitution embassy and other members of the diplomatic corps were at the station to honor to the slain Mexican leader.

In a signed statement tonight, President Plutarco Elias Calles declared that the assassin of General Obregon had admitted the motive of his crime was religious fervor.

The president said, too, that authorities investigating the crime have gained much information "complicating directly clerical action."

He concludes his statement with a reference to the Mexican people to maintain peace and a statement that the government will continue to abide by the principles of the constitution and the revolution—a statement which is construed as signifying the president will not attempt to succeed himself.

Statement in Full.

President Calles' statement follows:
"The criminal has already fully confessed his tragic action was motivated by religious fanaticism. Furthermore, the authorities have gained much information complicating directly clerical action in this crime."

"But my government without being impressed for one moment for this new sombre system which is being practiced against our institutions, will re-

SOUTHERN DRY
GIRD FOR FIGHT AGAINST SMITH

Governor's Witness Is Target as Cannon-Barton Conference To Map Battle Plan Is Started.

Asheville, N. C., July 18.—(P)— Dry southern democrats met here today to plan a campaign against Governor Alfred E. Smith democratic nominee, and were told by Dr. Arthur J. Barton, of Atlanta, Baptist leader, in a brief keynote address, that opposition to the New Yorker was no reason for questioning the democracy of a southern man or woman.

Dr. Barton was elected permanent chairman of the conference on motion of Bishop James Cannon, Jr., of the Methodist Episcopal church, south. Bishop Cannon, one of those who called the conference, was chosen secretary and after organization the conference went into executive session. There were about 200 men and women in attendance. An open meeting was called for tonight.

Sees Law in Peril.

Dr. Barton declared that the prohibition laws have been menaced by the nomination of Governor Smith.
"I am a democrat and therefore opposed to Al Smith," he said. "In that, I think I voice the ideas of an overwhelming number of democrats of southern states."

"This conference was called because of a serious moral crisis in the life of the nation. After 100 years of effort we succeeded in the accomplishing the greatest single reform ever accomplished by a free people on the face of the earth. Now that would be jeopardized if the nominee of the democratic party is elected. There also is a crisis in the life of our party."

Defends His Views.

"The fact that I will not support Al Smith in no way questions my democracy, our party has been delivered into the hands of the Tammany tiger red with the blood of every democratic candidate for president for generations."

The registration of delegates showed the following:
Alabama, 16; Arkansas, 4; Flori-

MEXICAN REBELS DITCH FAST TRAIN

Laredo, July 18.—(United News.) Seven passengers were injured, none seriously, three rebels were killed and two baggage coaches were telescoped when a Laredo-bound train was derailed and attacked by 200 rebels, at Rincon, Mexico, 275 miles south of here.

The attack, which occurred Tuesday, was reported by passengers arriving here today, nine hours late, on another train.

Passengers were toppled from their berths when all but two coaches of the train left the track. A 15-minute panic in the train followed while guards held off the attack of the swarming rebels. In a second attack by the insurgents three rebels were taken captive and later executed.

Thirty-five American passengers were aboard the wrecked train. None of them was injured, although they narrowly escaped possible death when the Pullman in which they were sleeping toppled against the side of a water tower. The tower prevented the coach from rolling into a deep arroyo. One man was flung into the water of the arroyo but he was rescued.

Passengers on the wrecked train were taken aboard the south-bound train at Laredo.

Mexico City train, which turned back at Laredo.

While the battle was in progress women and children ran screaming up and down the aisles, which added to the general confusion.

The captured rebels declared that their leader was a woman. Several reports have been received here in recent weeks that a woman was leading a band of roaming bandits in the vicinity of Tuesday's attack.

$2,000,000 IS GIVEN BY ROCKEFELLER TO AID STUDENTS

Paris, July 18.—(AP)—John D. Rockefeller has contributed $2,000,000 for the new students quarter of Paris.

"The University city," which is the name given the new quarter which has sprung up since the war on the site of the old defensive wall of Paris now numbers several buildings erected by foreign countries to house the students university. The rapid growth of the university city made a central administration building and Mr. Rockefeller has furnished the funds for that purpose.

A letter from Raymond B. Fosdick, in behalf of Mr. Rockefeller, says that in addition to the $2,000,000 for the building, three annuities of $65,000, $55,000 and $50,000 will be given for the upkeep.

HOKE SMITH CALLS DEMOCRATIC RALLY

overthrow of white supremacy will inevitably follow.

The democratic party has honored me as it has few men in the history of Georgia. It has honored me far beyond my just deserts. There is no office in the party, state or national, to which I aspire or which I would accept. I am planning to build a country home on the outskirts of Atlanta and expect to spend my remaining years in relaxation.

I owe the democratic party an obligation of gratitude for the honors it has bestowed upon me, and likewise I owe it a sacred duty, which is to defend it against its enemies from without and its malcontents within. In obedience to that duty, and in response to requests which have come to me from Georgians all over the state, I request loyal democrats throughout Georgia who feel concerned over the present situation to meet in the Forsyth theater in Atlanta on the evening of Friday, July 27, at 8 o'clock, Central time, for the purpose of organizing a statewide campaign, which will be aggressively conducted, in support of Governor Alfred E. Smith and Senator Joseph T. Robinson.

Sincerely,
(Signed) HOKE SMITH.

Home Is Robbed.

J. E. Harwell, 647 Alwood street, S. W., reported to detectives late Wednesday night that a thief entered his home while he was away, and stole a valuable watch and $5 in cash. No clue as to the identity of the intruder was found. Detectives Armstrong and Austin investigated.

SMITH'S OFFICE DEEDS PRAISED BY ROBINSON

Pine Bluff, Ark., July 18.—(AP)—Reviewing the life and political career of Governor Alfred E. Smith, of New York, Senator Joe T. Robinson, democratic vice presidential nominee, in an address here tonight said the presidential nominee had "perhaps done more to bring the benefits of government to the masses of the people and to make government humane than any other American statesman of the last 50 years."

Making his third speech in two days, Senator Robinson addressed a crowd of several thousand south and southeast Arkansas citizens in Geisler park. A few hours before he spoke at a joint meeting of civic clubs and last night made an address at Conway.

Devoting the greater part of his address to Governor Smith's political record, Senator Robinson, however, severely criticized the present republican administration and said "the people will not ratify the corruption which has clouded the national reputation since the beginning of President Harding's administration."

He explained that he would not enter a general discussion of campaign issues until after his formal notification of his nomination next month.

Declaring it "seems to me that some agencies allied with the opposition to the national democratic ticket are reckless in their assertions and reliable in their conclusions," Senator Robinson said: "No wholesome result can be anticipated from processes of intimidation, concealment or misrepresentation."

Referring to Governor Smith, he said: "Through the confusion with which his character has been clouded by misinformation may be clearly seen a statesman of the highest caliber, revealing unflinching loyalty to the millions who do not ask for privilege or favor from public officers and who are interested in the often forgotten by political authorities."

ELLEN TERRY, NOTED ACTRESS, CRITICALLY ILL

London, July 18.—(AP)—Dame Ellen Terry, noted actress, was lying critically ill at her home in Kent tonight. She was attended by her daughter, Edith Craig and her son, Gordon Craig, who were summoned last night.

Among the Arkansas delegates was Dr. A. C. Miller, of Little Rock, editor of the Arkansas Methodist, who was a candidate for the democratic nomination for lieutenant governor of that state and who refused to sign a pledge to support all candidates on the party slate.

Addresses by dry leaders from throughout the south were heard at the mass meeting tonight with women having a considerable voice in the proceedings.

Smiled by Saloon.

"We are speaking for the millions of American mothers who have children growing up and who do not want them ruined by the corner saloon," declared the Houston convention, asserting that there was no harmony at that meeting, charged that machine politicians had "cracked their whip" and that dry delegates had been told to subordinate their principles "to this false cry of harmony."

At the executive session a committee consisting of a man and a woman from each state, was organized, which was represented by two women, one of whom was placed on the committee, to work out a statement of policies, purposes and program. The committee in turn named a sub-committee, the names of the members of which were not made public, to prepare a tentative draft.

Dr. Barton was selected as chairman of the committee and Bishop Cannon secretary.

The full committee consists of the following persons: Alabama: J. A. Brantcomb, Gadsden; Mrs. Mary T. H. Jeffries, Birmingham; Arkansas: Dr. James A. Anderson, Little Rock; Mrs. J. B. The convicts were rushed into the cell blocks immediately set up a clamor. There was no general riot, as was first reported, however, as the trouble with Gardner and Urbaytis was not generally known throughout the yard and prison until it was all over and the regular routine had been resumed by the guards.

It was said: While waiting to enter their cells, which were still locked because an excited guard had taken the keys with him while he sought a gun, the prisoners on one end of the penitentiary started an uproar of shouts, which was picked up and hurled back by those on the other end, and this continued some time, giving the watch-

Maryland, president of the National Woman's Democratic Law Enforcement league, told the conference that 75,000 women, members of her organization were "as one opposed to the democratic nominee." This she said was because "he represents Tammany and a corrupt system of government based on special favors and privileges and because Tammany has opposed every democratic candidate for the presidency since the days of Samuel J. Tilden, it having fought Cleveland, Bryan, Wilson, Cox and Davis."

Very women in the organization I represent," she continued, "have no conscious interest beyond the welfare of our country and the democratic party. They believe that the triumph in the national election of the Tammany intrigue in capturing the nomination is a bad precedent for the democratic party and for the country for they know perfectly well that Tammany organized the yet minority and captured by secret influence the nomination for the presidency since the days of Samuel J. Tilden, it having fought Cleveland, Bryan, Wilson, Cox and Davis."

Sees Fight for Repeal.

"We are confident if Governor Smith is elected he will use his power as president of the United States and head of the democratic party to repeal or amend the eighteenth amendment."

She denied that refusal to support Smith should bar anyone from the ranks of the democratic party, adding: "We are speaking for the millions of American mothers who have children growing up and who do not want them ruined by the corner saloon which Governor Smith is seeking surreptitiously to bring back into our home life."

"Many men in the democratic party hunt for office and jobs and are easily fooled by the assertions and reliable in their conclusions," Senator Robinson said: "No wholesome result can be anticipated from processes of intimidation, concealment or misrepresentation."

Referring to Governor Smith, he said: "Through the confusion with which his character has been clouded by misinformation may be clearly seen a statesman of the highest caliber, revealing unflinching loyalty to the millions who do not ask for privilege or favor from public officers and who are interested in the often forgotten by political authorities."

ers on the outside the impression of a riot in the prison.

An investigation into the manner in which two .25-caliber vest pocket pistols were smuggled in to Gardner and Urbaytis will be launched by Warden Snook today. Opinion was expressed Wednesday night that the pistols probably were smuggled in with cotton yarn consigned to the duck mill.

Rumors have been persistent that two revolvers were buried in the prison yard several years ago. One of these weapons was recovered by prison officials during an exhaustive search some time ago. Both Gardner and Urbaytis have worked in the duck mill. Prison officials kept the two men separated from each other, anticipating some kind of trouble, it was said. Urbaytis had worked in the tailor shop up to Tuesday, when he was transferred to the duck mill, and Gardner was sent to the tailor shop from the duck mill, Gardner having obtained a certificate from the prison physician stating that he was in danger of falling from a standing at the loom. At the same time, Gardner was transferred from B to A cell house, and Urbaytis from A to B. A prisoner named Carrigan, from Ohio, and two others, a convict named Andrews and his son, both sent to the prison from New Jersey for mail robbery, were alleged to have been implicated in the escape plot, although they did not join Gardner and Urbaytis in the effort to break through the prison doors after the wall scaling attempt was discovered. All five men were confined in solitary.

Police officers Aid.

Police officers who answered the call to the prison were Captain J. L. Gordon, Lieutenants L. J. Carroll and M. A. Hornsby, and Call Officiers E. Strachett, John Ector, R. L. Burden and Paul Higgins.

Prison officials said that inmates

When Captain Parker and Guard Bunce walked up to Gardner and Urbaytis and the other participants in the wall scaling attempt to investigate their suspicions, Gardner and Urbaytis drew their weapons and made prisoners of the guards. Guard Bunce was struck over the head with a gun by Gardner. Guard Finn, who hurried over to investigate the trouble was held up. None of the guards had guns.

Urbaytis remained behind at the scene of the attempted wall scaling to hold Guards Bunce and Finn at bay with his revolver.

Captain Parker was marched to the rear door of the cellhouse corridor, while wall guards, realizing the trouble, endeavored to shoot Gardner, though hampered by the use of Captain Parker as a shield.

Arriving at the rear door, Gardner forced Guard Nixon, at the point of a gun, to open the iron barred gate and the party passed through.

When Gardner, still holding Parker in front of him, reached the second door Captain Parker threw his keys to the two prisoners, and Guard Dean tried to shoot Gardner, but failed because of the prisoners' use of Parker as a living breastwork.

Guard Dean had just gone off duty and was at the second door when he saw Gardner forcing Captain Parker along at pistol point. Dean immediately obtained a gun from the armory, which was a few feet away, and tried to shoot at Gardner, but in vain.

With guards pressing him close behind, and the locked gate and Guard Dean barring his path, Gardner realized the game was up and, in the face of hopeless odds, surrendered his gun and allowed himself to be placed under arrest. Meanwhile, guards on the wall and in the prison yard forced Urbaytis to surrender his weapon, and Guards Bunce and Finn were liberated.

Pistol Fire Useless.

In spite of a number of shots fired by Gardner and Urbaytis and the scheme which obtained freedom for Albert Rosenberg, 10-year term; Fred McGoldrick, three-year term; and Basil Banghart, two-year term, in January of 1927, Rosenberg, McGoldrick and Banghart escaped under fire, through a cell house window, after a battle with the guards.

Urbaytis was found by guards at the window, on the interior of the cell house, together with Joseph C. Lawson, 20-year term, their nerve having failed at the sound of firing outside.

Rosenberg was recaptured in the attempted robbery of a theater box office in Indiana, and is now serving a 25-year term in that state. Banghart was reported to have been connected with the robbery, but escaped and is still at large, being the sole man to have escaped and maintained his freedom since Warden Snook took charge of the prison. Rosenberg was the "brains" of the escape, and Urbaytis and Lawson were invited to share in the get-away.

The fiscal year, which closed July 1, did not see a single escape or attempted escape from either the prison or the honor farm. Wednesday's effort being the first in more than a year.

Gardner's Record.

Gardner's career escapes almost rivals the history of Houdini. When he was sentenced to 25 years at McNeil Island, Washington, for mail robbery, following his arrest in California, he snatched the marshal's gun on the train near Portland, Ore., and escaped, leaving the officer shackled with his own handcuffs, in the state room. Recaptured, Gardner was started to McNeil Island again, and escaped again with the aid of a small gun concealed under his belt. He was caught once more, and arriving at

WHEELER IS EASY PRIMARY WINNER

Helena, Mont., July 18.—(AP)—United States Senator Burton K. Wheeler has been renominated by the democratic party in Montana.

Returns from yesterday's primary election served today to steadily increase Senator Wheeler's overwhelming lead over his opponent, S. V. Stewart, war-time governor of Montana, who has conceded the senator's victory and has sent him a telegram of congratulation.

Senator Wheeler's opponent for the senatorial seat at the November general election in all probability will be Joseph M. Dixon, also a former governor, who was leading his closest opponent, C. H. Williams, for the republican nomination, by nearly 5,000 votes late today.

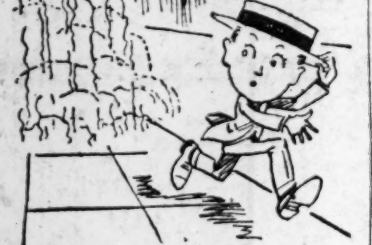

The vote from 526 precincts out of 1,490 in the state in the democratic contest gave Wheeler 20,252, and Stewart 4,940. In the republican race the vote from the same number of precincts was Dixon 16,370; Williams, 11,821.

Governor J. E. Erickson and Roy E. Ayers, of Lewiston, contesting for the democratic nomination for governor, were running neck and neck and the lead changed often. Returns tabulated late today gave Erickson a lead of 1,208. The vote from 725 precincts was Erickson, 15,633; Ayers, 14,425.

Wellington D. Rankin was accepted as the republican candidate for governor.

OATH OF REVENGE TAKEN IN MEXICO

new its energy, and now announces to the nation that the liberal principles of the social revolutionary movement, which popular conscience affirmed eighteen years ago, can never be nullified.

"It is a criminal illusion and stupid self-deceit to think that Mexico can or will ever return to the customs of our dark periods of the past."

Good of Mexico.
"The revolution will always advance despite stealthy attacks and must win definitely eventually for the good of the Mexican family."

"To this end I call upon all revolutionary groups to sustain still more firmly the banner of revolution, and organize themselves into a strong, indestructible union to realize noble ideals—abolishing all personalities and other differences, and constructing with faith, or ardor and constancy the structure of national prosperity for the interest of all."

"The unprecedented crime as a result of which General Obregon lost his life has covered the nation with a justifiable shame. Every honest spirit everywhere reproves this crime with honest indignation. By it Mexico has lost the outstanding statesman of the present time and the most illustrious representative of the social movement, which has cost so much suffering for the people, and out of which so many benefits will be derived for national development."

Punish Author.
"My duty in repudiating this heinous crime is also to state that the nation and my government is resolved to use every power at its command, to punish not only the material author of this unspeakable crime but to discover and punish also as examples, whoever they may be, those who are bound to be intellectual directors of the deed which so profoundly wounds national institutions and the credit of the republic."

"In the midst of the moral commotion the crime has produced it is pleasing to be able to announce that orders have been maintained in all the republic and that there has been no disturbance. This condition surely will continue, and is the most solemn proof of the unanimous condemnation of this shameful outrage."

Continue Policy.
"My government will continue its previous policy seeking peace for the country and assuring its citizens the privilege of exercising their political rights—the exercise of which rights have at times involved such serious disorders."

It is in the final paragraph of this statement that the president declares himself in a manner thought here to be indicative of his plans for the future. Here he says:

"Finally I want to announce that the government will continue as heretofore within constitutional paths and with the requisite calmness and energy."

Calles to Keep Post.
Coincidentally today the anniversary of the death of Benito Juarez, Mexico's "George Washington," the problem of presidential succession was, as then, uppermost in the minds of national leaders.

President Calles today was regarded as certain to remain at the helm of Mexico's ship of state, even though his doing so may be in technical contradiction of the revolutionary principle of no reelection initiated by Juarez and contained in both the constitution of 1857 and that of 1917.

The Mexican constitution in force now, that of 1917, even though it was revised to permit reelection of General Obregon following another's term as president, does not make possible in its present form a direct succession to the chair by Calles upon the expiration of his present term.

Means Discussed.
Various means of making such succession possible, however, were being discussed in Mexico City today; certain it is that no one believes any other than General Calles will take charge of governmental affairs.

These means included the appointment by congress of a provisional president to assume office upon expiration of the Calles term in December. A general election might then be called and Calles offer himself for reelection without violating the clause in the constitution concerning direct succession.

If this plan is followed it is believed generally that Anron Sazua, governor of Nuevo Leon, and former minister of foreign affairs in the Calles cabinet, will be named provisional president. His interim of power probably would be brief. Sazua, whose residence is in Monterrey, was among the foremost of Obregon's supporters and is a brother-in-law of one of Calles' daughters.

Other Plans Possible.
Other plans, however, were regarded as possible. A constitutional amendment to allow General Calles to succeed himself in the present emergency may be asked. This, doubtless, would be subject to reelection at a new national poll, or, the constitutional amendment which extends the presidential term to six years may be interpreted as applying to President Calles, who was elected to a four-year term. This would retain him in power until 1930.

Still another course of action may be decided upon eventually, however, and forecasts today as to what will happen were at best only conjectures. Sharing the stage with grief at the death of Obregon and speculation as to the future was public indignation at the assassin's attack and the determination of authorities to get at the very bottom of the shooting.

Assassin in Cell.
Presumably the assassin, still known only as "Juan," was in a cell, although more or less summary execution before daylight was regarded as certain for him last night. The secret of his lengthened lease on life lay undoubtedly in the hope of officials that he would be persuaded to divulge the names of possible confederates in his crime.

Police headquarters tonight semi-officially announced that the assassin had been identified as Jose de Leon Torralba, an art student, age 23 years, a native of Lagos, in the state of Jalisco.

This afternoon Emilio Casado, proprietor of the restaurant at San Angel, where Obregon was killed, and 12 employees of that place were arrested by police and held for investigation. Officers, however, did not explain a possible connection with the assassination.

There was little question but that most vigorous efforts to bring about the punishment of those guilty were being made. Various political and non-political organizations and persons prominent in Mexican public life have made representations to the government demanding prompt punishment in the matter. The president's action late last night in removing existing police officials and appointing new ones prominent in Obregon affairs was regarded as his answer to their demands.

There was a time yesterday afternoon and last night when most anything might have happened. Supporters of Obregon in their anger at their chief's murder made gestures which might have resulted in harm to those unfriendly to the dead general. Enemies of Obregon, sensing the situation, immediately went into hiding and took other precautions as to their safety. The government itself aided in averting trouble by the use of the military to guard the homes and persons of many of these. Luis Obregon, secretary of labor, and an avowed opponent of Obregon, was among those thus guarded. The result was that comparative quiet was maintained over the entire night.

These precautions were being continued today.

TROOP TRAIN RUSHED SOUTH.
Nogales, Sonora, Mexico, July 18.—(United News).—A trainload of Mexican troops was rushed southward today.

The southbound train, which left Nogales Wednesday night, was halted today at Empalme, Sonora. Passengers were betrauded when the cars were filled with Mexican troops, sent south under orders from General Francisco Madero at Mexico City, according to messages received in Nogales.

No reason for the troop movement was given. Officials of the Southern Pacific railroad said that train equipment was rushed south to meet the funeral train of General Obregon at a damaged tunnel, where the remains of the president-elect will be transferred over a mountain and placed in another train to proceed to Navajoa, Sonora, his home.

VATICAN BLAMES POLITICS FOR CRIME.
Rome, July 18.—(United News).—The Osservatore Romano, official organ of the Vatican, commenting on the assassination of General Obregon today, said it probably was a crime of political origin.

"The terrible assassination which struck down a new president of Mexico at the culmination of his career, is a crime most likely of political origin, a result of misdeeds and hatred," the paper says.

"No political crisis is solved by the revolver shot which rather aggravates the situation. The divine command, 'Thou shalt not kill,' should remain inviolable."

"The cause of the crime, which demonstrated again the barbarous passions preying on a generous American people, is not yet known but violence and assassination cannot be escaped in a political atmosphere in which the revolutionaries of today become opponents tomorrow and the rebels of one day are the governors of the next, while all are denied constitutional guarantees in a peronian persecution which is destroying every principle of right and social discipline."

"The civic conscience of the world cannot but turn with sorrow to the fate of the unhappy nation."

Borglum Meets His Soulful GUTZON AND JUDY PALS AT LAST Artist After Long Search

Raleigh, N. C., July 18.—(AP)—Judy Rayford, Mobile's "boy with a soul," caught up with Gutzon Borglum here this afternoon, just as the sculptor was on the point of leaving Raleigh for Richmond.

Rayford, who had hopped from his home town since Borglum announced to the world he was seeking the youth whose work had impressed him as bearing the stamp of genius, flung his slacker into the artist's car and they sped on toward the Virginia capital. They delayed only long enough to pose for an Associated Press photographer.

The meeting between the sculptor and the tired and dusty boy whom he expects to make his protegee was undemonstrative but they exchanged a hearty handshake.

"Have you had lunch?" was Borglum's first question after the greeting. Rayford answered yes.

The youth left Asheville last night, making his way by receiving lifts in automobiles and by beating a train ride on a freight for 96 miles.

"That was the roughest freight I ever rode," he said with a grin. Having an engagement in Richmond, Borglum was preparing to quit Raleigh before Rayford arrived, but had arranged to leave transportation funds for the youth.

Bovine Tuberculosis In U. S. Is Reduced One Half in 6 Years

Washington, July 18.—(AP)—A 50 per cent reduction in six years in bovine tuberculosis throughout the country was shown in figures issued today by the department of agriculture.

Only 2 per cent of American cattle had been found to be tubercular up to July 1 this year, as compared to 4 per cent in 1922, 3.3 per cent in 1924 and 2.8 per cent in 1926.

In 499 counties the figures show the disease had practically been eradicated, and the areas still badly infected were shown to contain less than 6 per cent of the cattle in the country.

Dr. A. E. Wight, chief of the tuberculosis eradication division of the department said, however, that "there still is much to be accomplished and comprehensive work has been adopted in several states."

would involve large conduits and wires in certain sections and would change the location of the control switches and panels. R. E. Turner, city electrician, advocated fibre conduits instead of metal, stating that the former resists electrolysis better. Present at the meeting were Robert Gregg and Hal Hantz, members of the board of consulting engineers; Mr. Schulz, S. E. Blanchard, resident engineer for Mr. Schulz; Sam Woodward, electrical contractor, and W. J. Kackley, representative of the MacDougall Construction company; Mr. Turner, R. W. Torace, engineer in charge of survey, and A. D. Greenfield, member of the bond commission.

TRAIN WRECK KILLS ONE, INJURES 16

under construction and numerous detours are along the eight mile route. George Echols, superintendent of maintenance for the Rome division, said that the defect in the rail was not apparent from the outside, but close examination showed that it had never been solid. The engine and nine cars had passed over the rails before it parted.

The three Pullman cars were scattered along the right of way for a distance of 180 feet and the track was torn up for 300 feet by the cars that plunged along behind the train before they turned over.

W. L. Aleut, Atlanta, conductor in charge of the train, said he was making his way back to the front and had just left the third car when he felt the air brakes being applied. Realizing that the front of the train was all right he started back and discovered that the three cars had been turned over. The engineer of the train was R. E. Williams, of Atlanta. Mrs. George H. Wilcox, injured in the wreck of the Ponce de Leon, is the wife of the assistant freight agent of the Southern railroad, who was in Macon at the time of the accident. Mrs. Wilcox left Atlanta late Wednesday afternoon to visit her mother, Mrs. J. G. Isham, in Cincinnati. Her daughter, Miss Frances Wilcox, who is at the residence, 1246 East Wesley avenue, had heard nothing of the wreck until informed by The Constitution late Wednesday night.

WAYCROSS PLANS TOBACCO JUBILEE

Waycross, Ga., July 18.—(Special.) Waycross has arranged a distinguished and elaborate program for Friday night, August 2, when it will entertain the tobacco growers of this section at a tobacco jubilee.

The Waycross Tobacco Warehouse, one of the largest floor spaces in south Georgia, has been selected for the auditorium.

The program will open with an address by United States Senator Walter F. George. After this address the program will be devoted to amusement and recreation. The Y. M. C. A. band, one of the best musical organizations in the state, will give a concert. Following this will come a country dance and fiddlers' convention under the sponsorship of the American Legion.

After the country dance will come the annual bright leaf tobacco ball. The Novelty Six orchestra, which is in constant demand throughout south Georgia for the modern dances, will provide the music.

The Lions club of Waycross is in charge of all the arrangements, with Dr. W. C. Hafford as general chairman. He has already named the sub-committees and most of the preliminary work is well under way. The invitation is being sent out through the south Georgia tobacco belt and Waycross is making ready to entertain one of the largest crowds ever gathered within its limits.

FORT WAYNE AWARDED LUTHERAN GATHERING

Milwaukee, Wis., July 18.—(AP)—Fort Wayne, Ind., was chosen the 1929 convention city of the International Lutheran Walthers league, winning over Cleveland 504 to 458.

The Cleveland and Fort Wayne groups argued the merits of their respective cities without event until Walter Bengs, of Fort Wayne, made the assertion that Cleveland had not "played fair" in its attempt to obtain the 1929 meeting.

Bengs claimed that Cleveland had accused his group of insincerity in pressing its bid for the convention. He asserted that after Fort Wayne had held a meeting and decided to carry through its invitation, a Cleveland delegate asked one of his city's delegates what transpired at the meeting, imputing insincerity.

"I intend to name the man," Bengs declared. He was admonished by President A. A. Grossman to use "judgment" in his remarks and after the retort that "I am using judgment," he dropped the topic.

JACKSONVILLE SCALE ABANDONED BY MINERS

Indianapolis, July 18.—(AP)—The United Mine Workers of America today abandoned the Jacksonville scale as a basis for wage negotiations in the bituminous coal fields and extended to each one of its district the right to effect settlements with coal operators "upon a basis mutually satisfactory."

John L. Lewis, international president, made the announcement tonight after the policy committee, which has control of the union strike policies between international conventions, concluded seven days of consideration of the union miners' position in the soft coal fields.

The scale of $7.50 per day and $1.08 per ton which passed into the discard by the committee's action, was set forth by the federal coal commission in 1920 and has been effective in union operated bituminous mines since then. It was reaffirmed in the famous Jacksonville agreement of 1924 in the making of which Herbert Hoover, secretary of commerce, played a prominent part.

When the Jacksonville agreement expired April 1, 1927, operators throughout the soft coal fields were clamoring for a reduction in the union wages. The United Mine Workers at Indianapolis in January, 1927, set forth a policy of "no reduction in wages" and on April 1 a general suspension resulted. Many mines have worked under temporary agreements to pay the union scale. The policy committee's action may result in an unprecedented situation in miners' union history—the existence of different districts. The officers of each district in the union are free to negotiate for wages on whatever basis is "mutually satisfactory" their action to be submitted for ratification by a district convention or a referendum vote by the union miners in the district.

Publishers Meeting To Consider Unfair Competition Methods

Washington, July 18.—(AP)—A conference of publishers of newspapers and periodicals to consider unfair methods of competition in the publishing business will be held under the auspices of the federal trade commission on October 9 at New York. Chairman Humphrey of the commission will preside at the conference, which he said proposes to discuss the "efficient elimination from this field of publicity of all advertisements of a false and misleading nature."

The commission also announced two other trade practice conferences next month. The paint and varnish industry will meet August 1 at Atlantic City, N. J., and the rebuilt typewriter trade late in August at Cleveland.

"Legger" Prefers Charges Against Knoxville Officers

Knoxville, Tenn., July 18.—(AP)—Seven patrolmen of the Knoxville police department were under bond today, awaiting trial in federal district court on charges of extortion preferred by Bill Lundy, an admitted bootlegger.

The men were arrested yesterday by United States Marshal I. C. King and his assistants. City Safety Director Carr E. Spence immediately suspended them, and filled the ranks of the department by increasing the duty of service officers and recalling those on vacation leave. Lundy, in his charges, declared that he had paid them "huge sums" for protection, and gave as his reason for seeking their arrest their alleged effort to "raise the price" of protection. The officers are Rex Hatton, Eli Mincey, Ernest A. Carr, A. E. McLin, Beed Fowler, P. S. Decker and Robert Sexton.

NEGRO BAPTISTS TO GIVE CONCERT AT AUDITORIUM

The Sunday school and B. Y. P. U. convention of colored Baptists, in session here, will give a special entertainment at the city auditorium tonight, open to the general public, which will consist of the singing of gospel songs and plantation melodies by the choruses from the various sections, who will contest for the banner awarded each year.

The Wednesday morning service of the convention opened with a song service led by the Thomasville, Cartersville and Milledgeville groups. The Rev. E. G. Thomas gave a blackboard lecture, followed by addresses by the Rev. E. P. Johnson, of Atlanta, and the Rev. J. M. Nabrit, who is president of the general convention. The Rev. D. D. Crawford also spoke during the morning session. The annual address was delivered by the Rev. P. J. Bryant, president of the B. Y. P. U. department.

EPIDEMIC OF FALLS SENDS 4 VICTIMS TO GRADY HOSPITAL

An epidemic of falls brought several persons to Grady hospital Wednesday suffering from injuries of varying degrees of seriousness.

Mrs. Stella Albert, 52, of 65 Mills street, was treated for fractures of four ribs and a severely wrenched neck, sustained when she fell 12 feet from the porch at the rear of her home to the ground.

Albert Mennel, 14, of 384 Piedmont avenue, had several bones in his right hand and leg received when a quantity of hot tar was spilled on him. It is thought that the child was playing near a workman who was using the hot tar and was burned when some of the material was accidentally spilled.

Helen Gaddis, 3, of 814 Echo street, was treated for a painful laceration on the back of her head received when she fell from a porch at her home.

Evelyn Thurman, 10, of 719 Marietta street, was admitted to the hospital and is being held for observation.

TINY INFANT FOUND IN SHOPPING BAG IS WELL AND HAPPY

Her parentage still a mystery, a little baby girl, now only about 36 hours old, lies at Grady hospital, where she was carried after being found early Wednesday morning in a paper shopping bag on the curbing at the intersection of Moreland and Ponce de Leon avenues.

A negro iceman making his rounds in the early morning discovered the foundling in her improvised crib. Stopping a passing street car, he enlisted the aid of its crew, H. B. Denny and O. L. Ayres, and the three prevailed upon the occupant of an apartment at 1181 Ponce de Leon to care for the child until the Grady ambulance could be summoned to the scene.

At the hospital, doctors stated that the baby had evidently not been long exposed to the early morning air and that she had been as well protected by a blanket in which she was wrapped that she suffered little from her airing. Physicians placed her age at about 12 hours when she was brought to the hospital.

W. C. T. U. FROWNS ON ROOT BEER AT LAWN FETE

Manchester, N. H., July 18.—(AP)—Root beer and pretzels will be the fare at the lawn fete of the East Manchester Tennis club with approval of the First Methodist church and the disapproval of the local W. C. T. U. members.

Miss Edith P. Flander, one of the leaders in the state W. C. T. U. ranks, warned the club members that the root beer contains a yeast cake, that yeast cakes cause fermentation, that fermentation creates alcoholic content and that the whole combination causes the W. C. T. U. to look askance at the menu for the fete.

But the club committee consulted the authorities of the church with which it is affiliated and—well, root beer and pretzels will be served tonight.

MILITANT PAPER FACES LIBEL SUITS OF CITY COUNCIL

Sanford, Fla., July 18.—(AP)—Three libel suits totaling $300,000 today were filed against the Sanford Herald and its publishers by George A. Decotte, Sanford city attorney, whose removal from office the newspaper asked in an editorial last week.

Each of the suits was for $100,000. In a statement issued after the filing of the suit, the city attorney said the newspaper had charged him with dishonesty and corruption.

O'RYAN'S MOTHER, SISTER KILLED

New York, July 18.—(AP)—Major General John F. O'Ryan, war-time commander of the Twenty-seventh division, today forced the door of his mother's Brooklyn home and found her and his sister dead from gas. The medical examiner said their death was accidental.

When the mother, Mrs. Anna O'Ryan, 58, failed to arrive at his Westchester estate for a promised visit, General O'Ryan went in search of her.

His telephone calls to the house had gone unanswered.

Major Lawrence L. Driggs accompanied him. From the cracks of the locked doors they smelled gas. They forced the doors and found the bodies of the mother and her daughter, Mrs. James Crooke McLeary, 50, in the kitchen. The gas jets were open and the table set for dinner. The windows were all closed.

Mrs. McLeary's husband died two years ago, a year after their marriage. He was a lieutenant colonel under General O'Ryan in France and a Brooklyn lawyer.

U. S. COURT HERE DISPOSES OF 1,323 CRIMINAL CASES

Of 1,323 criminal cases disposed of during the past 12 months in the United States court of the northern district of Georgia convictions were obtained in 95.5 per cent, it has been announced by District Attorney Clint W. Hager, upon completion of his annual report for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1935.

Fines aggregating $42,500 and many long-term prison sentences were imposed on defendants in cases won by the government, the report disclosed. During the year just closed 1,575 cases were commenced and at the close of the year there were 1,187 pending. At the beginning of the year there were 1,435 cases pending from the previous year.

CITY WILL AWARD AIRPORT BUILDING CONTRACT TODAY

The contract for erection of a building and observation tower for the post office, weather bureau and radio services at Candler field will be awarded at a meeting of the aviation committee of council at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the city hall. Alderman W. B. Hartsfield, of the third ward, chairman, announced Wednesday. The committee has been given authority by council to let the contract, and an additional $1,000 has been made available for the purpose, the original amount set aside having been $5,000.

SENATOR RIVERS TO OPEN FULTON CAMPAIGN JULY 21

State Senator E. D. Rivers, candidate for governor, will make his opening speech in Fulton county at a barbecue to be given Saturday, July 21, at the Confederate Soldiers' home by the Fulton county chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy. The barbecue and speaking will take place at the Burns club, opposite the Confederate Soldiers' home.

Other speaking dates for the week were announced by Roy Harris, campaign manager, as follows: July 21, Atlanta, 11 a. m., U. D. No special policy will be followed as to the engagement of stars for the Atlanta season, according to Mr. Williams. He said a strong company of players would be organized and mentioned among the plays to be offered "The Trial of Mary Dugan," "Paris Bound," "Chicago," "Hurricane," and "Coquette," all recent New York hits.

Mr. Williams said work of reorganizing the Atlanta theater will begin at once.

VIADUCT MASONRY CONTRACTOR SEEKS TO ENJOIN UNION

A petition asking that labor leaders here be enjoined from alleged efforts to persuade workmen to quit masonry work on the viaducts and the Shrine mosque was filed Wednesday in Fulton superior court by J. E. McHugh, who asserted he held masonry contracts on the two jobs.

Judge Virgil B. Moore granted a temporary restraining order, as petitioned by McHugh, citing Albert W. Gossett, business agent of the Atlanta local, Bricklayers, Masons and Plasterers Union of America; Thomas Izzard, general agent of the union, and the organization itself to show cause on July 28 why a permanent injunction should not be ordered.

McHugh in his petition asserted that Izzard deposed him as president of Atlanta local union, No. 14, revoked its charter and at the same time ordered masons to cease work on the two jobs. McHugh claimed in ordering men to refrain from working under him.

HARRY DEERAN TRIAL WILL OPEN AUGUST 27

Harry M. Deeran, 54, Boston radical and former mail carrier of that city, goes on trial the week of August 27 for the shooting Monday of Postoffice Inspectors Joe F. Johnston and Morgan Griswold, according to tentative superior court criminal calendars.

The student of communism was dismissed from Boston postal service in 1925 for his radical views, coming to Atlanta a month ago to perfect a plan of vengeance on the service, he declares.

Deeran is at the Fulton tower in default of a $10,000 bond assessed Tuesday when the grand jury found two assault to murder indictments against him.

He has confessed to shooting the inspectors after trailing them for several days. The gunman's opportunity came as the two men left the federal building at the lunch hour. Johnston and Griswold, the latter attached to the Tampa, Fla., office, were shot down on Fairlie street.

Johnston, chief inspector of the Atlanta district, is back at his desk, recuperating from a flesh wound in the shoulder, while Griswold is at the Atlanta hospital. A wound in the latter's neck failed to touch a vital part, and his chance of recovery is excellent, doctors say.

OCCUPATIONAL TAX DECISION RENDERED

The city of Savannah has no authority to return to stevedoring companies occupational taxes amounting to $32,000, paid during the last seven years, it was ruled by the supreme court Wednesday. The litigation has been in the courts for two years and was decided finally in favor of the city as against the companies.

FEJER AND ATKINSON DISCUSS 'OLD TIMES'

The days, and nights, of nearly fifteen years ago, when Harry M. Atkinson, chairman of the board of the Georgia Power company, along with W. Forbes Morgan, William A. Storer, Charles E. Wetmore, Charles McDonald, the late Moncure Robinson and William Rylander, Sr., were moving spirits of the Friday Evening club, most exclusive social club in New York, are being lived over this week in a series of conversations between Mr. Atkinson and Joe Fejer, who is appearing on the vaudeville program at Loew's Grand theater.

Mr. Fejer in those days was leader of the orchestra of the Vanderbilt hotel in New York, and it was in the Della Robbia room of this hotel that every Friday evening the members of the club and their guests assembled to dance to the strains of the "Blue Danube" waltz and the Hungarian music in which Mr. Fejer and his orchestra specialized. Mr. Atkinson was one of the organizers and for some time president of the club, and Mr. Fejer recalled that among its guests were Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish, Mrs. Pembroke Jones and other leaders in the social register.

"You in Atlanta, perhaps, do not know how much we love Mr. Atkinson in New York," Mr. Fejer said. "He is a man we respect and admire."

Mr. Fejer said he was principally indebted to Mr. Atkinson for the engagement which brought him first to America. A Hungarian by birth, he was about fifteen years ago director of the orchestra at the Ritz-Carlton hotel in Paris. Mr. Atkinson and Mr. Wetmore, members of the board of directors of the Vanderbilt hotel, brought him to New York to become director of the Vanderbilt orchestra. He remained in this position until a few years ago, when he was offered a contract by the Keith circuit, and he is now making his first tour over the Loew circuit.

A pupil of Eugene Yaeger, the distinguished Belgian violinist, Mr. Fejer is an accomplished soloist, but stakes his reputation principally upon the leadership of his orchestra and selections by the Hungarian composers in which they specialize. All of the members of the orchestra are Hungarians.

125 Confederate Veterans Receive 'Gold Star' Medals

Fulton county's Confederate Veterans were honored at exercises Wednesday at the chamber of commerce, each receiving a "gold star" medal. In the above picture, Mrs. William A. Wright, president of the Atlanta Ladies' Memorial association, donors of the medals, is seen presenting the emblem to State Treasurer W. J. Speer, who also is a civil war veteran. The old soldiers interestedly looking on are W. D. Harris, left, and H. Quincy Adams.

One hundred twenty-five of the 160 Confederate veterans estimated to reside in Fulton county met Wednesday afternoon at the chamber of commerce building to receive "gold star" medals of the Atlanta Ladies' Memorial association.

One of the largest assemblies of veterans Fulton county has seen in years attended the exercises, in which speeches were given by dignitaries of various patriotic organizations, the medals distributed and a musical program rendered by the Georgia Power company band.

Mrs. William A. Wright, president of the Atlanta Ladies' Memorial association, who presented the crosses, explained they were given not only as a personal honor to every veteran, but to signify that each had been entered on the gold star living veterans' roll of the Stone Mountain association.

mountain memorial, and to honor Fulton county veterans, the local society has raised a fund of $800 through a membership subscription and various contributions from friends of the society. Mrs. Wright said.

After compiling a list of Fulton veterans, invitations were issued to every one by the memorial society, which will send the medals to such veterans as were unable to attend. Other speakers were J. Howell Green, representing G. F. Willis, president of the Stone Mountain Memorial association; Hollins Handolph, former president of the association; General J. Colton Lyness, of Marietta, inspector general, U. S. V.; Dr. S. S. Seater, pastor of the First Methodist church; Mrs. A. McD. Wilson, president general of the Confederate Southern Memorial association; and Mrs. W. Trox Bankston, of Covington, representing the Georgia division, U. S. V.

Congressman L. J. Steele Pledges Support To Smith

Congressman Leslie J. Steele, of Decatur, candidate for the nomination in the September 12 primary for congressman from the Georgia district, the post he now holds, Wednesday stated in no uncertain terms that he will support the democratic nominee for president in the elections before him.

Mr. Steele made known his stand in reply to a letter from R. J. Reynolds, Jr., prominent young Atlanta attorney, in which Mr. Reynolds had asked for Congressman Steele's views on the prohibition question and the nomination of Governor Al Smith as party standard bearer.

Mr. Steele in his reply said that he had voted for the present prohibition law in Georgia, for the eighteenth amendment and that he would vote against any attempt in congress to change the amendment or the prohibition law. He said that he would support Al Smith in the campaign before the November elections, even should he not receive the nomination for congressman in the September primary.

Mr. Steele's and Mr. Reynolds' letters follow:

Mr. Steele's Letter.
"Mr. R. J. Reynolds, Jr., Atlanta, Georgia.
"Dear Mr. Reynolds: I have your letter to me, dated July 17, in which you wish to know how I, as a candidate for congress, stand upon two questions, to-wit:
(1) If a bill should be introduced in congress during the next congressional term of office to repeal the eighteenth amendment or to repeal or modify the Volstead act, would I support it?
(2) Whether I intend to support the nominees of the Houston convention?
"In answer to the first question, I may say that I have been a prohibitionist, both publicly and privately, all my life. In 1917 I was a member of the legislature of Georgia, during the administration of Governor Harris, and as such member supported and helped to pass the present prohibition law of this state. During my candidacy for congress in 1926 I proclaimed from every stump in this district my allegiance to the national prohibition law. I have had no reason to change my views upon this question. In fact, if anything, I am stronger for prohibition today than I have ever been, and should such a bill as you describe be introduced into the congress while I am a member I shall oppose it with all the force of my nature, and the record will disclose my vote always in the negative.
"In answer to your second question, I may say that I am a democrat, and am a candidate for congress as a democratic primary, and it is my purpose to support in the November election the democratic nominee before the Houston convention, and this will be done even should I not receive the nomination for congress in the September primary.
"I am glad to answer you frankly. You and the other voters of this district are entitled to know my views upon these questions.

"I am not, as many are, alarmed over the present situation. The wisdom of our forefathers so formed this government that our rights are vested in the people of this land. We are not at the mercy of any one man, however powerful his position may be.
"The present democratic nominee for president was not of my choice, but he has been nominated by my party, and I shall support him, knowing full well his views on prohibition. But I also know full well the American congress, and know that any effort on the part of any president to repeal, amend or modify the present prohibition law would promptly meet the disapproval of the congress of the United States.
"There are many questions for the benefit of the American people which ought to be solved for their good, but these questions will not be solved until the democratic come into power. I, for one, am anxiously looking forward for that day. Let Georgia not forget the party of her fathers, the party which has stood by us in the days of our trials, and which means so much to us in the days that are to come.
"Now, I have no criticism to offer to the individual voter who leaves the democratic party to support Herbert Hoover for president, but I do have a suggestion to make to him. The democratic party is bigger than Governor Smith, and the republican party is bigger than Mr. Hoover. When you vote for Governor Smith you vote for the democratic party, for its principles, for what it represents; when you vote for Mr. Hoover you vote for the republican party, for its principles, for what it represents, and more than that, by your vote you endorse the long trail of corruption of that party since the democratic days of Woodrow Wilson.

"I know not what others may do, but for me, no, never.
"Thanking you for this opportunity to express myself, I am, with best wishes,
L. J. STEELE.
Decatur, Ga., July 18, 1928.

Mr. Reynolds' Letter.
Law Office of R. J. Reynolds, Jr., 313 Palmer Building, Atlanta, Ga.
"Hon. Leslie J. Steele, Member of Congress, Decatur, Ga.
"Dear Sir: I am taking the liberty to write you this letter in order to enable myself and others to vote intelligently in the congressional primary and election in this district.
"There are two important issues about which there is considerable discussion in the congressional primary, and concerning which I would like to know your precise views.
"There is considerable agitation concerning the prohibition issue. In the event that any bill is introduced during the next congressional term of office to repeal the 18th amendment, or to repeal or modify the Volstead act, I would like to know whether or not you will vote for it.
"There has been such discussion of the question of party regularity and bolting the party, that I would like to know whether or not you intend to support the nominees of the Houston convention.
"I feel that in this day of so much 'pussy-footing' on controversial issues that the people of this district are entitled to know the real attitude of the various candidates for public offices on these subjects. Therefore, as a voter of your district and as an enrolled democrat, I respectfully request you to answer these questions in no uncertain terms.
"I know that there are a great many voters of this district who also desire enlightenment of the views of the various candidates on the aforementioned issues. If you are considerate enough to answer the letter as requested, I would like to make the additional request that you allow me

Relieve Headache

Why shock your system with harsh laxatives and purgatives when it is most likely that your headache comes from a congested condition of the blood which can be corrected by this simple, harmless remedy?

Years ago, Dr. T. M. Stanback discovered that the majority of people want something to relieve headache quickly, without any bad after effects. So he developed this prescription which has been used by so many throughout the South that it has been called "The South's Standard Remedy." Physicians and dentists use it in their practice to relieve all kinds of pain—neuralgia, backache, toothache, and to check colds and "flu."

You'll be simply amazed at the speedy relief you'll get with Stanback Headache Powders. At the very first sign of headache or pain of any kind, go to your drugstore. He'll recommend Stanback—and you will, too, after the first trial.

STANBACK FOR PAIN

NUMBER OF PLANES IN AIR DERBY HERE IS LIMITED TO 60

Due to the large number of entry blanks now on file at headquarters at the Henry Grady hotel, the number of planes competing in the aviation meet to be held at Candler field on July 28-29 will be limited to 60, according to an announcement Wednesday by Swanee Taylor, producer of the air show.

Demonstrated safety, according to Taylor, will be featured throughout the two days of racing and stunt flying.

"When as many as 60 ships operate simultaneously at Candler field," said Taylor, "the sky will be literally filled with ships and the element of caution cannot be overly stressed. To have more than the number to which the entries will be limited would be running the risk of serious accident."

The On-To-Atlanta-Reliability Air Tour also will be limited to a certain number of ships, Taylor stating that he wants only the super-type pilot competing in this event.

Ten ships will leave Chicago on the Atlanta tour and fly the first leg to Evansville, Ind. There four planes will join the caravan and fly to Nashville, where three of the best fliers in that city will join the procession. From there the birdmen go to Chattanooga, picking up three more, bringing the total to 20. These 20 ships will be included in the 60 competing here and the rest will be made up of local planes and craft piloted by well known aviators within a radius of 600 miles of Atlanta.

To publish this letter and your answer to it upon the receipt of the latter. Should such a course be pursued, there would be no cause for misunderstanding on the part of any voter.

"Thanking you in advance for any consideration that you might give this letter, I remain,
"R. J. REYNOLDS, JR."

Bishop Collins Denny Praises Statement Of Bishop Candler

Richmond, Va., July 18.—(P)—Persons divinely called to the ministry are "separated unto the gospel of God," and because of that separation many activities in which they could blamelessly engage prior to the call are closed to them, Bishop Collins Denny, of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, said here today in a formal statement of his views on the duty of ministers as citizens.

"Confronted by the inability satisfactorily to determine in very many instances whether my duty as preacher or citizen should prevail, I try to put first and to keep first the fact that by divine appointment I am separated unto the gospel of God," the statement said. "If I must make a mistake, may God forgive my clouded mind, I prefer to err in favor of the separated life."

The statement commends and concurs in the "summary of the official position of our church," prepared by Bishop Warren A. Candler, of Atlanta. Few additions are needed, Bishop Denny said and those added are "on my own responsibility."

Bishop Denny declared that the "sentiment of the day, the concession almost universal, permits the doctor, the lawyer, the banker, the merchant, the farmer, to discharge his full civic duties without reference to his avocation."

"But this concession has not been granted to the preacher," he said. "If he goes beyond the activity of voting the cry is instantly raised, most vociferously by those whose lives are given to politics, by the truly tolerant, by the thoughtless and ignorant, 'the preacher in politics!'"

Strict Enforcement Of City Traffic Laws Is Urged by Ragsdale

Another admonition to the police department that the city traffic laws, particularly the automobile light ordinance and the law against big trucks impeding traffic by taking the middle of the street, must be rigidly enforced, was contained in a letter sent Wednesday to Police Chief James L. Beavers by Mayor I. N. Ragsdale.

Mayor Ragsdale pointed out that he has received frequent complaints against motorists running over red lights, passing street cars which are taking on or discharging passengers, and hogging the streets by trucks.

Tom Heeney To Increase Work Today

Will Box Six Rounds and for Title Fight.

Fairhaven, N. J., July 18.—(P)—In the stifling heat of midafternoon Tom Heeney engaged in a furious four-round workout with his two new sparring mates today. He handled them as though engaging in a real battle. The critics agreed that he

The New Zealander boxed two rounds each with James J. Lawless, Harrison, N. J., heavyweight, and James J. Braddock, lightweight from Jersey City. Although Braddock proved to be a speedy target, Tom managed to cross his right with speed and accuracy. At the start of their second round, Heenev knocked Braddock into the ropes with three

With Lawless, who went on for the last two rounds, Heeney slugged like a longshoreman. Twice they stood toe to toe, trading punches to the head. Their last rally found Lawless, backed up against the ropes, bleeding Heaney will increase his boxing to six rounds tomorrow and then will begin to taper off, reducing his boxing to four fast rounds. He will finish all work with the gloves next Monday. He will merely loosen up a bit Tuesday and intends to depart for New York late Wednesday afternoon.

Word was received today that Jack Dempsey, James J. Corbett and John Risiko will watch Heeney go through his paces Sunday. Dempsey will be the guest of Promoter Tex Rickard.

The race was a claiming affair for three-year-olds, over a six furlong course, and the winner covered the distance in 1:10 2-5. Mint Dinah was well placed.

Scratches reduced the field in the Morrison hotel handicap, feature at Lincoln Field, to four starters, and J. J. Camden's Oh Susanna easily led the three others to the finish line. Given a good ride by Willie Garner, Oh Susanna took the lead from Cayuga at the head of the stretch and won by two lengths. Cayuga took second place and Woodlore third.

At Devonshire the feature of the day was the riding of McGinnis, who boosted three winners under the wire, while the Dorval track led in long Keith's Georgia.

The Three Sailors, who are getting the high percentage of laughs at Keith's Georgia this week, go through a routine of movements at each performance that is absolutely identical with every movement made at every other performance. The three-laughs-makers remain upon the stage approximately 22 minutes and during that time every movement is perfectly timed so as to synchronize with the music and to "get the laughs."

Capitol.

"Hits and Bits of 1928" presented by the Exivston-Napier Musical Comedy company at the Capitol is proving one of the outstanding hits of the present season. The Rich-Capitol bathing beauty revue continues as the feature extraordinary, while the scene feature, "Hot Heels," with Glenn Tryon and Patsy Ruth Miller is without any doubt one of the cleverest comedy features of the year.

Loew's Grand.

Headed by Joe Fajor and his Bohemian orchestra with Gertrude Lang as prima donna the bill at Loew's Grand theater this week is a strong vaudeville program. Other acts are Donovan and Lee in a comedy skit;

DICKEY GIVEN HIGH INSURANCE POSITION

Howard.

Gene Dennis is at the Howard this week, to answer any questions that you may want to ask. During the first three days of this week she has answered many questions and has foretold many coming events. "Half a Bride," with Esther Ralston and Gary Cooper is the feature picture, it is a story that is said to be about five years in advance of the times. "Treasure Ships," with Jack Stanley and the Howard stage band, is the stage show. Every act in this show is said to be a show stopper.

Metropolitan.

Judging from the activity around the Metropolitan's box office almost any hour of the day, the popularity of the "Jazz Singer" now playing Atlanta for its eighth week, apparently is undimmed, despite the fact that already more than 90,000 Atlantans have thrilled and marveled at Jolson's great characterization.

Rialto.

"Hot News," the thrilling and uproariously funny vehicle in which the talented Bebe Daniels proves to the world that she's absolutely the cat's ankles as a newsreel photographer, is delighting crowded houses at the Rialto theater this week where it is being shown on the same program with a bill of big-time Vitaphone vaudeville. Charles Rogers, in a comedy skit, and Charles Hackett, in two solos, are heard on Vitaphone vaudeville with the Ingenues, famous girl band. Movietone news also is a feature.

Tudor.

Silverstreak, the wonder dog, proves that he can act, fight and love in a new way in "Cross Breed" his latest action picture, showing at the Tudor theater for the last time today. The story of a cowardly dog turned into a fighting machine.

Cameo.

Pauline Starke and Harry Myers have choice roles in the Mike Twain story at the Cameo theater today. "A Connecticut Yankee in King Arthur's Court." This film was produced by Fox a few years past, but a special return showing has been arranged.

Alamo No. 2.

It's a hard-boiled picture when the director and cameraman have to wear bullet-proof vests and direct the action from behind steel shields. But that's the kind of a screen story "Underworld" happens to be. "Underworld" is to be seen at the Alamo Theater No. 2 today.

Empire.

The pranks and humors of college life were never so hilariously brought to the screen as now in Marion Davies' greatest comedy, "The Fair Co-Ed," today's attraction at the popular Empire theater, corner Georgia avenue and Crew street.

Hoover Home Town Folks Hunting Antiquated Coach

Stanford University, Calif., July 18.

Older residents of Stanford university today were searching barns, abandoned buildings and forgotten places for an antiquated coach with which they hope to conjure up pleasant memories for Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hoover when they arrive here for the summer.

The old coach, dubbed "Marguerite," is recalled as the vehicle in which Hoover and Miss Lou Henry, now Mrs. Hoover, used to ride to Stanford university from Palo Alto. It was last remembered as wearing a coat of flagrant red. That may facilitate its rediscovery.

Incidentally, the friends of the republican presidential candidate and his wife are calling attention to the fact that Stanford university, and not Palo Alto, is the legal residence of the Hoovers.

The Hoover home is located on the 8,000-acre tract known as the Stanford union. Under the postoffice name of Stanford University it is governed principally by students of the university under a system which grew under the student body form of government instituted by Mr. Hoover himself some years ago.

Stanford University, with about four thousand inhabitants, owns its water and sewerage systems and the community has its own traffic regulations. The new union, projected by Hoover in 1905, includes a hotel, chapel and theater.

Not-Guilty Verdict in Flogging Trial

Milledgeville Ga., July 18.—(AP)—Fourteen Harby, Wilkinson county farmer, was acquitted in the Baldwin superior court this afternoon on being implicated in the flogging of Jim Angles, Baldwin county farmer, who was taken from his home early last May and severely flogged. The jury was out less than an hour when the verdict was returned.

Hardy, together with L. L. Smith and J. W. Hubbard, was accused by Angles of being a member of the band of four men who administered the flogging to him. The three men were arrested the following day and released under bonds of $1,000 pending the outcome of the trial.

According to Solicitor General Joe B. Duke, of the Ocmulgee circuit, who conducted the prosecution of Hardy, the indictments against Smith and Hubbard will now be dropped.

Angles was taken from his home and carried six miles into the country and flogged with a tuck-stubbed leather thong. The man was whipped so severely that attending physicians at the time had little hope for his recovery.

The courtroom was packed to capacity during the trial and the spectators closely followed the argument of the attorneys.

Judge J. F. Park of the Ocmulgee circuit, presided at the trial and the defendant was represented by Marion Allen and J. B. Pottle, local attorneys.

The company of which he now becomes vice president is one of the largest of the eastern fire insurance companies, being now in its seventy-sixth year. It is represented by several well-known local agencies.

ANNUAL BARBECUE HELD AT IDLEWOOD BY WEST END CLUB

With Mayor I. N. Ragsdale and other city officials, together with officials of various civic clubs of the city, as invited guests, more than 200 persons enjoyed the annual barbecue and picnic Wednesday afternoon and night at the West End Business Men's club, at 1100 West End.

Members of the club and their friends assembled in front of the Lee street school shortly before 2 o'clock and motored to Idlewood, where the athletic program was held during the afternoon.

Soon after the barbecue was served, members of the club and their friends enjoyed dancing until near midnight. Paul and John, two popular local radio stars, provided the highlights of the entertainment program, singing several request numbers.

W. A. Lynn, secretary of the club, was chairman of the entertainment committee and was assisted by Hall Davis, president of the club, R. F. (Bob) Pennington and Fred C. Rice, Alderman Guy Dobbs, of the seventh ward, and a member of the club, assisted the entertainment committee.

BOY CHASES DOG AND IS KILLED UNDER BUILDING

Clarksville, Tenn., July 18.—(AP)—Efforts of a nine-year-old boy to recover a stray dog ended disastrously near here today when John Ewing Meek, son of Rufus Meek, was fatally wounded by Douglas Potter, 28, who fired at the dog under a store building, not knowing the boy was near by.

When the dog ran under the building, owned by Potter's father, John Ewing crawled under to obtain a gun. Potter in the meantime obtained a gun. His only shot went wild and struck the Meek boy in the head.

GRAND JURY GETS MORE G. O. P. DATA

Biloxi, Miss., July 18.—(AP)—The federal grand jury here investigating distribution of federal patronage in Mississippi by state republican leaders continued to gather evidence today but their activities apparently had settled down into the dull routine of court procedure without the bustle of activity about the courtroom that has been in evidence since it convened a week ago.

Feeder than a dozen witnesses were called into the jury chamber today. Court attaches said the jury probably would not call any more witnesses after today's session and would spend several days in the jury room before report for presentation to Judge E. R. Holmes, in district court Friday.

Sixty odd witnesses in addition to several seen examined by the district attorney have appeared before the grand jury with evidence on which seven men, including Perry W. Howell, special assistant United States attorney general, now under suspension, were indicted in connection with alleged sale of public offices in Mississippi.

United States marshal here, for conspiracy to violate the law prohibiting sale of public offices. They are alleged to have received $150 for the appointment of A. P. Russell as deputy United States marshal at Magnolia, J. C. Tannehill and William A. Miller, others indicted, were named with Patton in an indictment charging irregularity in the appointment of Miller as postmaster at Wiggins, Miss.

The Redmond brothers and Patton obtained a change of venue from Judge Holmes yesterday and will be tried with Howard during the November term of district court at Jackson.

Tannehill, Miller and Hubbard raised no objection to trial here. All the defendants are at liberty under bond.

D. C. STEPHENSON WILL TELL STORY IN PRISON CELL

LaPorte, Ind., July 18.—(AP)—David C. Stephenson, former grand dragon of the Indiana Ku Klux Klan, filed notice that the former Klan leader would serve a life sentence for murder, appears to have won his fight to tell his story.

Following a brief hearing in circuit court here today, Arthur L. Gilliam, attorney general of Indiana, filed notice that the former Klan leader would serve a life sentence for murder, appears to have won his fight to tell his story.

St. Louis, July 18.—(AP)—Pending his departure tonight for Memphis, where he will attend the second formal conference of the Mississippi flood control board tomorrow, Brigadier General Thomas H. Jackson, president of the Mississippi River commission, said today that the conference might end in a day, depending on intricacy of problems to be solved.

The three-member commission which will supervise expenditure of the $325,000,000 congressional flood control appropriation, recently reached an agreement on the course of the river and levees should be kept low, and that additional reclamation of backwater lands should be approached with caution.

CAPT. MARIANO'S LEG AMPUTATED

Virgo Bay, Spitzbergen, July 18.—(United News).—An Italian physician tonight amputated Captain Adalberto Mariano's leg frozen on the march toward land after the trans-polar dirigible Italia crashed on the arctic ice.

Mariano, aboard the Russian ice ship Krassin, which rescued him, was in a high fever and gangrene had attacked the leg. The Krassin obtained a physician from the Italian rescue ship Braganza which met the Krassin in the open sea.

Captain Filippo Zappi, who was rescued with Mariano, has recovered from the exhaustion of six weeks of walking across the ice floes.

SHIPS AND PLANES CONTINUE SEARCH.

Oslo, Norway, July 18.—(AP)—Nine vessels and upward of a score of aviators remain in the Spitzbergen area to search for the six possible survivors of the dirigible Italia and the six missing rescuers of the Roald Amundsen party. Of the nine vessels four are Norwegian, three are French and two are Russian.

Six of the ships were in the field today. The other three were refueling for that soviet port she will be in preparation for resuming their search.

Latest addition to the fleet is the vessel of the famous French explorer, Jean Baptiste Charcot. He sailed early today from Bergen on the Pourquoi, and will cooperate especially with the French cruiser Strasbourg which is coaling at Longyear City.

Breaker to Return.

The Russian icebreaker Malinin was reported last as being in the neighborhood of 78 degrees north and 33 east. She is under orders to return to Archangel before heading directly for that soviet port she will look for traces of Amundsen and the missing balloon party of the Italia in the regions off the northeast coast of North East Land.

The most powerful of all the ships dedicated to the task of finding those stranded in the north, the icebreaker Krassin, is coaling at Advent bay. Aboard her are seven survivors of the Italia and the Norwegian hunter Nois and three Italians who were sent out on a reconnoitering expedition from the Braganza.

New Base Planned.

As soon as she finishes coaling, the Krassin will transfer her Italian refugees to the Citta Di Milano, base ship of the Noble expedition. She will then head for the region east of Foya island, where General Noble and other experts believe that traces will be found of the six men who vanished when the balloon part of the big dirigible was carried away after the May 25 disaster.

A base will be established in those waters and the Russian aviator, Chukhnovsky, will endeavor to add to his record of discovering survivors, by scouting thoroughly over that area.

The Citta Di Milano is awaiting the Krassin at Nyalsund.

It will receive its official consecration at the hands of President Domergue, of France, and King Alfonso of Spain, and tomorrow normal service will start.

Now You Can Reduce 2 to 4 Lbs. in a Night

Eat what you please

Wear what you please

Do what you please

Take no risky medicine

Thousands of smart women have found this easy way to take off 2 to 4 pounds once or twice a week. These women take refreshing Fayro baths in the privacy of their own homes.

Fayro is the concentrate of the same natural mineral salts that make effective the waters of twenty-two hot springs of America, England and Continental Europe. For years the spas and hot springs bathing resorts have been the retreat of fair women and well-roomed men.

Excess weight has been removed, skins have been made more lovely, bodies more shapely and minds brighter.

The Hot Springs Are Now Brought to You

Painstaking analyses of the active ingredients of the water from twenty-two of the most famous spring have taught us the secret of their effectiveness. You can now have all these benefits in your own bath. Merely put Fayro into your hot bath. It dissolves rapidly. You will notice and enjoy the pungent fragrance of its balsam oils and clean salts.

Then, Fayro, by opening your pores and stimulating perspiration forces lazy body cells to sweat out surplus fat and bodily poisons. Add Fayro to your bath at night and immediately you will lose from 2 to 4 pounds in an easy, refreshing and absolutely harmless manner.

Your physician will tell you that Fayro is certain to do the work and that it is absolutely harmless.

Fayro will refresh you and help your body throw off worn-out fat and bodily poisons. Your skin will be clearer and smoother. You will sleep better after your Fayro bath and awaken feeling as though you had enjoyed a week's vacation.

Lose Weight Where You Most Want To

Fayro reduces weight generally, but you can also concentrate its effect on abdomen, hips, legs, ankles, chin or any part of the body you may wish.

Results Are Immediate

Weigh yourself before and after your Fayro bath. You will find you have lost from 2 to 4 pounds. And a few nights later when you again add Fayro to your bath, you will once more reduce your weight. Soon you will be the correct weight for your height. No need to deny yourself food you really want. No need for violent exercise. No need for drugs or medicine. Merely a refreshing Fayro bath in the privacy of your own home.

Try Fayro at Our Risk

The price of Fayro is $1.00 a package. Inside each package you get an interesting booklet, "Health and Open Pores."

If each beautiful unit of Fayro does not reduce your weight from 2 to 4 pounds, we will refund you money without a question. You risk nothing.

HERE'S PROOF

Read what Fayro bathers have done for others.

"Three Fayro baths reduced my weight 11 pounds in 8 days. I feel better than I have felt for years."

"I weigh 160 pounds and feel younger and sleep better. Fayro is wonderful."

"My double chin vanished in the magic of Fayro baths."

"My hips were always too prominent. After three weeks of Fayro baths, I have lost 12 pounds."

"Thank you for Fayro. I lost 14 pounds in three weeks. I feel better and certainly look better."

"Since childhood my thick ankles have always been a source of embarrassment. Fayro baths have reduced them beautifully. Thank you very much."

THE GUMPS—TWO GOOD MEN

The Taming of Elizabeth

By WINIFRED BOGGS

SYNOPSIS.
The young Elizabeth is the adored daughter of Tim and Elizabeth Darcy. When she is four years old she runs away from home to avoid punishment for getting into mischief. She is brought home promptly by a neighbor, Miss Miller.

At 12 Elizabeth runs away again, this time from school, and to the home of her Aunt Dolly in London. Dolly, who is almost as flighty as the young Elizabeth, sympathizes with her niece, much to the irritation of her stepson, Stephen Whitby. After the death of her parents Elizabeth goes to live with her aunt. During the war they keep themselves busy and also amused by performing in amateur theatricals for the benefit of wounded soldiers. Stephen, home on leave, is asked by his stepmother to bring Mark Lennox, a young playwright, to one of their performances.

Shortly after the end of the war Mrs. Whitby dies suddenly in Brighton and Elizabeth learns to her consternation that her aunt had frittered away the money left her by her husband, and had also disposed of some of Stephen's inheritance as well. Elizabeth decides to go to Mark Lennox in London and ask him to get her a job on the stage. Stephen, who has failed her and although his business has failed he offers to help her. She refuses his help and takes part in Mark's new play.

INSTALLMENT XVI.
THE CURTAIN GOES UP—AND DOWN.

The light-hearted and unconcerned member of the company. The others might doubt their parts, even their own ability; she never doubted hers. If only there had been more of it! The moment she was free of Mr. Howard and his tiresome directions, her part would be a triumph. The play would owe its real success to her, and soon they would all be telling her so.

Thus before the curtain went up. When it did . . . well that was another story. For one thing Elizabeth had to make an entrance and be alone on the stage for a few seconds. She was supposed to move lightly here and there, but her legs and arms turned to wood, and she would not move at all, or only in jerks. Then she had to remain unsupported before a sea of bulging eyes, eyes like codfishes, staring and staring, all of them at her. She did not know whether she really saw these eyes, or whether she imagined she saw them, but she did know they were there, and that never for an instant could she forget them. Merely, critical, horrible, bulging eyes! Her mouth grew dry; she had but one wish, to fly from this dreadful place and never come near it again. Other people came on the stage, they spoke to her, seemed to wait for her to reply . . . to reply to what? She never knew nor cared.

It was not Elizabeth, as you will find in the other papers," said Mark. "The only one in late and only got a garbled version of what had happened. The others all have it right. Elizabeth just bolted home. Your kid, I expect, is hiding in her room. We'd better go and dig her out."

They found Elizabeth to be dug out of a bed that had not been slept in, and a missing suitcase. She had evidently returned, packed hurriedly, and then gone out again. It was rather odd, and worried both of them. "She had no money and nowhere to go," gasped Mark.

"A young ignorant girl like that! We must find out where she has gone. She must have friends. Don't you see, Mark, it was you she could not face. She felt she had let you down, ruined your play. She did not know what happened afterwards. She will read it today and be sure to write."

"Yes, I expect it will be all right, but she is rather impulsive. I'll run round and see Stephen. He must know about it, and doubtless will have heard where she is."

Stephen, however, knew nothing. He had seen Elizabeth's disaster and gone behind the scenes to inquire for her, but he had found she had left the theater. He had supposed she had gone home and had returned to see the play to the end, delighted with it and with Mark's success. He was sorry for Elizabeth but not astonished. It was well she should realize first at last that she would never make an actor, and as things had turned out, all had been for the best. It was awkward he should have her on his hands just when things were at their worst, but it could not be helped. There were those two ten-pound notes, fortunately untouched, that had come anonymously from "a creditor who will soon pay all back." They would have to keep Elizabeth till something could be done about her.

Mark's news was both a shock and an aggravation. "Of course, she would run away," he got out. "Never was there such a girl for running away as Elizabeth. She's always at it! The sooner she discovers things are to be faced the better. I'll ring up the people she is most likely to be with."

He rang them up, but with no success. (Copyright, 1928, for The Constitution.) (Continued Tomorrow.)

HOOPER WELCOME PLANS ABANDONED

San Francisco, July 18.—(AP)—Plans for a joyous homecoming welcome for Mr. and Mrs. Hoover, who arrived here today, were abandoned today because of the death of Mr. Hoover's father-in-law, C. D. Henry, aged 84, who died early today at Placerville, Calif.

The committee of Californians that had planned to meet the Hoovers at Placerville, Calif., and accompany them to Stanford University by way of San Francisco, announced in the light of developments that the formal reception at the city hall here would be postponed until after formal notification of Mr. Hoover of his nomination August 11.

CHARLES HENRY DIES, LAST WISH UNANSWERED

Placerville, Calif., July 18.—(AP)—Charles Delano Henry, 84, father-in-law of Herbert Hoover, died here early today without realizing his last wish, that he might see Mrs. Hoover before he succumbed to a paralytic stroke. Physicians said hope of greeting his daughter kept the aged man alive several days. He previously had been ill since June 4.

Grandson at Beside.

Mrs. Jean H. Large, of Palo Alto, daughter, and Alan Hoover, grandson, were at his side this morning when he died without coming out of a coma into which he lapsed Monday. Alan, son of Herbert Hoover, arranged today to have the body sent to Palo Alto tomorrow, where the last of the services will be held by Mrs. Hoover, formerly Miss Lou Henry. Mr. and Mrs. Hoover are due in Palo Alto shortly after noon Friday.

Besides the two daughters, Mrs. Hoover and Mrs. Large, Mr. Henry left a brother, A. L. Henry, of North Dakota; three grandsons, Alan Hoover, Herbert Hoover, Jr., and Delano Large; and a granddaughter, Janet Large.

A Native of Ohio. Mr. Henry was born in Ohio and was a resident of California 40 years. Until his retirement 10 years ago he

PLAN HUGE MEETING FOR SMITH IN CHICAGO

Chicago, July 18.—(AP)—George E. Brennan, national democratic campaign manager for Illinois, today revealed plans for what he termed one of the greatest political mass meetings ever held when Governor Al Smith, of New York, democratic presidential nominee, comes to Chicago.

At a conference with Governor Smith last week, Brennan said the candidate agreed to make an address here. The committee plan to accommodate all the voters who would want to hear Governor Smith.

About 150,000 persons attended the Tunney-Dempsey fight at the stadium last fall and with the aid of amplifiers Brennan said he thought about 200,000 persons could be seated. Governor Smith's address also will be broadcast from local radio stations and possibly over one of the chain broadcasting systems, Brennan said.

United States Senator Heflin, of Alabama, who addressed the national convention of the Ku Klux Klan, declined to say whether he would support the democratic presidential candidate.

"I think Smith and Roosevelt will be defeated by a larger vote than Coolidge won over Davis," the Alabama senator said.

Schoolgirl Seersess Fan For Delicious Cream Sodas

Gene Dennis, the "Kansas wonder girl," appearing this week at the Howard theater, goes to a Jacobs soda fountain to prove her fondness for ice cream sodas made with a snap.

Gene Dennis, seersess though she be, likes her chocolate ice cream sodas after the fashion of every healthy American school girl.
